Car-Mad Jack The Speedy Sports Car

by Jenny Alexander

True or false

Jack didn't mind at all the rules for sitting in the cars.

Clark, Jack's cousin, was always kind to Jack.

Jack loved making posters for his Wall of Cars.

The people who bought the Range Rover gave Jack £10 for the poster.

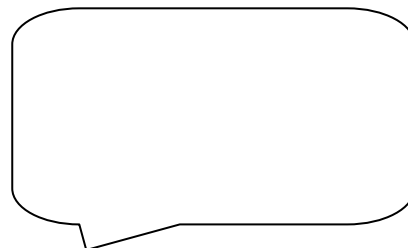

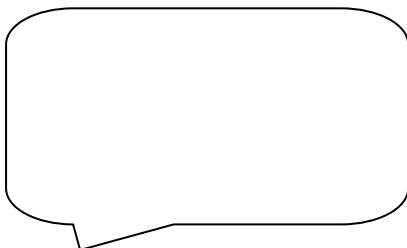

Jack didn't enjoy spending Saturdays at the Car Supermarket.

Jack's feelings

Think about how Jack felt:

- when he first sat in the red Ferrari
- at the end of the book when the people who bought the Range Rover asked him if they could buy his poster

In the speech bubbles, write what you think he said about his feelings:

Ed's Poetry

Imagine you owned a racing car, a space rocket and so on. Complete this poem saying what you would do in your dreams.

Ed's example is:

In my racing car I'd win the Grand Prix.

In my dreams...

In my racing car

In my space rocket

In my steam engine

In my jet plane

In my speed boat

When you have finished your poem you could read it to a friend or learn and recite it.

Ed would enjoy reading your poem. You could email your poem to him.

Imagine sitting in a car of your choice then think of an adventure you could have like Jack did. Which car would you choose and where would you go?

Look at Jack's picture for the Wall of Cars at the end of the book then draw a picture of your choice of car. Remember to write a comment about the car and sign your name like Jack did.
