Tom and Tallulah and the Witches' Feast

by Vivian French

Ed's Poetry

Here is the first verse of Motorway Witch, a poem by Max Fatchen. Using this as a model and using ideas from this book, write a poem of two or three verses about a witch with the same rhythm and rhyming pattern. Remember to give your poem a title.

Here comes the witch.
She's not on her broom
But riding a motor bike
Going ZOOM... ZOOM...!

When you have finished your poem you could read it to a friend or learn and recite it.

Ed would enjoy reading your poem. You could email your poem to him.

Tom and Tallulah and the Witches' Feast

A magic spell is a word or group of words, spoken or unspoken, to try and make a magical effect. The most famous is probably Abracadabra. See if you can find some more magic spells - or make some up yourself.

Do an illustration of the Midnight Feast in this story. Look at the illustration on page 143 and decide whether to do yours in black and white or in colour.
